Admiral Stansfield Turner, USN
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Admiral Turner:

Your presence at yesterday's annual spring luncheon of the Central Intelligence Retirees Association brought many highly favorable comments. The good will and good wishes were evident before you were a block away from the Kenwood Club. We're pleased that you were able to spend some time with us and hope that you'll be in the mood to join us again. We'll keep you posted as to our future undertakings.

While my tour as president of CIRA ended yesterday at about the time you finished your talk, I can assure you that the Association has the greatest regard for today's Central Intelligence Agency. While the objectives of CIRA are social and fraternal in nature, I know that the newly chosen officers will do all in their power to further the purposes of the Agency. You'll find a ready response, I'm sure, should you need the help of the alumni association.

Sincerely yours,

Past President, CIRA
